Charlie has reduced down to 286 pounds and only looks as broad as the front of the new postoffice.

When the salesman attempted to run the tape around Lange's Apollo-like proportions, life reach fell short by a Salt Lake block and he was obliged to finish his measurements by chalking up the distance around the big fellow's front.

The efforts of the shirt agent to make consections with both ends of the tape caused Lawyer Dan Harley, who was superintending the operation to inquire whether or not "Father" Lange was being measured for an awninger a tent

Lack of Money a Drawback.

It was announced at the close of the meeting that arrangements had been progressing as far as possible. Insufficient funds and uncertainty regarding the college authorities' artitude was partible as the reason for failure to complete the arrangements. The committee lacks $7.000 of the sum necessary to cend the selections of the American team. A telegram was received by the chairman of the committee announcing that Goy Guild of Massachusetts had personally collected $2500 toward defraying the expenses of the team. Part of this amount, it is understood, was collected at Harvard.

Dyspepsia of Women EUROPE PERILOUSLY

Caused by Female Disorders and Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

A great many women suffer with a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not seem to yield to ordinary treatment. While the symptoms seem to be similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines universally pre scribed do not seem to restore the patient's normal condition.

Mrs. Pinkham claims that there is a kind of dyspepsia that is caused by a derangement of the female organism, and which, while it causes a disturb-ance similar to ordinary indigestion, cannot be relieved without a medicine which not only acts as a stomach tonic, but has a peculiar tonic effect on the female organism. As proof of this theory we call attention to the case of Mrs. Maggie Wright, Brooklyn, N. Y., who was completely cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after every-thing else had failed. She writes:

"For two years I suffered with dyspepsia which so degenerated the entire system that I was anable to attend to my daily duties. I felt weak and nervous, and nothing that I ate tasted good and it caused a disturbance in my stomach. I tried different dyspepsia cures, but nothing seemed to help me. I was advised to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, and was happily surprised to find that it acted like a fine tonic, and in a to find that it acted like a fine tonic, and in a fewdays I began to enjoy and properly digest my food. My recovery was rapid, and in five weeks I was a well woman. I have recommended it to many suffering women.

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement or has such a record of cures of female troubles, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Ogden Paper Makes Terrible Charge Against G. Halverson, Prosecuting Attorney.

OGDEN, Feb. 27.-The determination graft on the part of public officials in Ogden and Weber county shall be thoroughly investigated, and to that end, when court opened Monday before Judge Howell, the immediate case before the court being the charge against Councilman William W Craig of appropriating to himself and other members of the City Council fliegal fees, District Attorney George Halverson arose and addressed a request that a grand jury be called to investigate the alleged misconduct of public officials.

Wants a Grand Jury

Wants a Grand Jury.

Wants a Grand Jury.

In his address to the court Mr. Halverson stated that a local morning paper had made certain statements and comparisons intended to affect the proceedings in the Craig case now before the court. That public officials, himself included, had been charged with having been instrumental in the dismissal of a case where a man was charged with murder, and asked that a grand jury be called and that the acts of every official in public life, and by inference he referred specially to those of himself, be thoroughly investigated and a report rendered to the court.

Just before I became Mayor a cigarmaker, the son of Mr. Wessier, the cigar manufacturer, was beaten to death in a saloon in attempting to collect a bill. The man who committed the awful crime did not even have a trial. George Halverson, the man who is now proseculting the City Councilmen for voting themselves 155 extra pay, consented to the discussed and had the man charged with murder dismissed. Great Scott! Is it possible that a man who has been homest and upright all his life, who homestly believed he carned 155 a year, is to be punished, while the man who takes human life goes free, even without a trial?

Officials to Hold Conference.

Judge Howell stated that before he would call a grand jury he would investigate the matter with the officers. To this end a meeting was called for tonight in the Judge's chambers. At 7.30 tonight

Diplomat Declares Strife Between Germany and France Is Now Unavoidable.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 27.-Most alarming views with reference to rela tions between Germany and France preall in certain diplomatic quarters where the situation is considered to be extreme ly tense and a conflict by no means un likely. The Embassador of one great European power told the Associated Press today that war, in his opinion was inevitable and had, in fact, already been decided upon. "It is sad," added the diplomat, who is not ranked among the admirers of Em-peror William. "that for the whims of peror William. That for the whims of one man Europe must be plunged into the horrors of war.

No Decision Announced

There was no decision announced. It is intimated that the conclusion of the officers and the court will be kept from the public until such time as Judge Howel may announce them from the bench which will probably be on Wednesday either after the conclusion of the Craig case or during a recess when the jury is absent from the courtroom. Prosecutor Maliciously Attacked.

Prosecutor Maliciously Attacked.

Mr. Halverson says that he has been maliciously attacked in the article but that before he will take criminal action against the perpetrator of the alleged libel he prefers that a proper investigating body shall investigate his record in office. This he invites and will welcome for the reason, he says, that there is no foundation for the mendactous charge. Further, he says that he is an ardent advocate of the grand jury system of inquiry, and thinks that one should be called every year, and that a thorough investigation of all the acts of public officials should be made.

Mr. Halverson further stated that should the court decline to appoint the grand jury which he requests, and should the conference of the officers agree that such a course was not now needed, he will still take his recourse at law against the maligner, and will enter a criminal action.

After these statements had been made it was egreed that the bill should be considered daily during the morning hours until disposed of. LOS ANGELES, Peh. 27.—In commenting upon the decision of the United States Supreme court finding in favor of the railroads in the fruit shipping case, Joseph H. Call, who acted as special counsel for the Government in the case, said today:

"This decision will perpetuate the railroad pool. It gives legal sanction to the companies and probably means that citrus fruit growers of this section will be driven out of business in greater numbers than heretofore."

Former United States District Attorney L. II. Valentine said.

"This State's income of more than $20,000,000 annually is menaced. Expediency is also demonstrated in the matter of a law which will protect growers against the railroads."

J. A. Woodford, manager of the California Fruit Growers Express, said.

"Under Judge Weilborn's decision, citrus fruit growers have enjoyed two prosperous years. Now they are deprived of the rich to select their own routes and delay in getting fruit to market means great loss."

Mr. Claps called up the bill to dispose of the affairs of the Five Civilized Tribes it indian Territory and the preliminary discussion showed that there was much oposition, also that there was to be criticism of the disposition of the coal lands owned by the Indians.

Mr. Claps saked for immediate consideration of the bill for the final disposition of the affairs of the five civilized tribes, and argued that unless the bill was passed before Sunday there would be embarrassing complications, for the reason that the tribal relations come to an end at that time by existing law.

Mr. Foraker objected on the ground that it would interfere with the Statehood bill.,

Mr. Ralley said there were amendments made to the bill in the committee which overrule opinions of the courts and the views of the Attorney-General, and that it would be impossible to pass it by March t. He thought that enough of it could be passed, however, to continue the tribal relations temporarily. As an objection to the bill that would have to be debated, Mr. Balley mentioned the provisions in relation to the disposition of coal lands and he thought legislation should be adopted to prevent these lands from passing to the railronds, which had been given grants for their rights of way across Indian Territory, He estimated that the lands involved millions of dollars that would be asved to a school fund with the proper legislation.

Boston Financier Says Insurance Kings Will Yet Wear the Convict Livery.

BOSTON, Feb. 27.-In a series of communications issued tonight Thomas W. Lawson of this city, who for several nonths has been active in securing proxes from policyholders in leading life insurance companies, states that he is: ready and willing to do all in his power to aid in the passage of the laws recommended by the Armstrong investigating committee. Mr Lawson issued three letters, one addressed to the Armstrong committee, another to the so-called committee of Governors, to whom he has turned over all insurance proxies that he has thus far secured, and a third to the has thus far secured, and a third to the policyholders themselves.

Mr. Lawson's statement regarding the proxies he has obtained has been awaited with interest in view of the fact that one of the laws recommended by the Armstrong committee would invalidate each and every one of the proxies already secured.

secured Cost Him Large Fortune.

In a communication to the Amstrong committee Mr. Lawson says, in part:
"On behalf of scores of thousands of policyholders of the New York Life and policyholders of the New York Life and Mutual Life Insurance companies, I would respectfully submit: At an expense of hundreds of thousands of dollars I have collected sufficient proxies from policyholders to give me power at present to control all the coming elections of both the New York Life and Mutual companies. I have turned these over to a committee composed of Governors of States and equally representative public men.

"My reason for collecting such proxies: of these two companies have been plun-dered of from $175,000,000 to $250,000,000 dered of from $175,000,000 to $250,000,000 which can be recovered provided these companies are placed in the hands of honest, fearless men.

"I believe that if these companies are placed in the hands of such men some of the richest and best-known men in the country, who have systematically plundered the people for a quarter of a century, will be sent to State prisons for long terms."

In a letter to the Governors' committee, Mr. Lawson advised it to assure the New York Legislature that the committee approves of the new election law pro-New York Legislature that the commit-tee approves of the new election law pro-vided by the Armstrong committee. He urges the Governor's committee to do all in its power to assist in the passage of the law. Mr. Lawson advises the Gov-ernors' committee in the event of the passage of the proposed law, to name a board of trustees "as near ideal in its composition as your honesty, fearless-ness and ability can formulate."

In a third communication, adressed to the policyholders of the New York and Mutual Life companies, who have sent nim their proxies. Mr. Lawson explained the situation and urged them to do all in their power to aid in the passage of the law in regard to the conduct of the annual election.

"The most effective work you can do," said Mr. Lawson, "Is to cause your Governors. State Commissioners and different committees to serve notice on the New York Life and Mutual that if they oppose the passage of the law they will be debarred from doing business in your State."

Mr. Lawson also speaks of an alleged "secret contract in use by the companies which the Armstrong committee, in their investigations, did not even learn the existence of."
